

Eliminating Academic Probation Notation on Official Transcripts for Undergraduate Students

Policy:

Academic probation decisions are stored in the university student database for academic decisions and advising but are not reflected on official certified transcripts issued by the Registrar's Office. Academic probation is noted on internal versions of the official transcript for use by students, deans, and advisors.